

Margaret Manson Home & School Association (MMHSA)

MMHSA would like to welcome returning parents and parents of children entering Kindergarten this fall. The MMHSA is an active parent association run by a dedicated parent community whose goal is to make our students educational experience as rich and fulfilling as possible by encouraging school spirit. Throughout the school year, the MMHSA provides and engages in a variety of organized events which is achieved through various fundraising activities and active parent volunteers.

The MMHSA has been an active association for the past 11 years and its fundraising accomplishments include the following:

- Held annual Book Fairs (French/English) with proceeds going towards the purchase of new books for the classrooms and library
- Shared initiative for Anti-Bullying Program "Dare to Care"
- Purchasing of Smart Boards, portable fans and robotic kits for classrooms
- School yard equipment
- Various equipment for Music and Physical Education Departments
- Additional support for Teacher's Convention and Graduation Committees

The MMHSA has also provided the students and school community with, but not limited to

- Welcome Back Corn Roast/ End of Year BBQ for new and returning families
- hot chocolate and cookies during story time at Christmas & apples for students during Terry Fox Run
- Holiday Fairs/Bingo Night/Hot Dog lunches during School Carnival
- Breakfast Trolley and Luncheon during Staff Appreciation Week

As a member of MMHSA, you will get a vote in deciding where the funds raised will be allocated. Through MMHSA, you will also become a member of the Quebec Federation of Home and Schools (QFHSA) and will have access to programs and materials in education and parenting tips. You will also receive the Quebec Home and School News by e-mail. Any parent wishing to join the MMHSA are asked to provide a small family membership fee of $18 (cheque made payable to MMHSA)

To learn more about the MMHSA, consult our website at <http://margaretmanson.lbpsb.qc.ca/hs.htm> or contact us via e-mail at MMHOMEANDSCHOOL@gmail.com. We will also be present at the upcoming AGM meeting on Thursday, September 3rd and will be hosting a Wine and Cheese Welcome Event on Tuesday, September 8th for all existing members and new parents interested in learning more about the MMHSA, more details to follow.

Looking forward to meeting you in September and hoping you will consider becoming part of the MMHSA.

Sincerely,

The MMHSA
